

Training Two

Leading High-Performance Teams

This course equips leaders to expand their influence, build collaborative teams, and foster a healthy culture that drives peak performance.

Leaders and their teams will learn to:

- Adopt a shared identity without compromising individual ambitions
- Envision and invite others to rally around a compelling cause
- Leverage diverse contributions to strengthen a team - not divide it
- Bring out the best in others, empowering and positioning them for success

Attendees will experience an instantly applicable shift in their ability to:

- Nurture stronger, more cohesive teams performing at higher levels
- Improve cross-functional collaboration, breaking down the barriers of “us vs. them”
- Build trust and increase engagement toward a shared vision

I came into your talk feeling unsure about how I could best add value as a leader ... your talk opened my eyes to the leader I wanted to be - regardless of position - and helped me dedicate myself to my work and serving my team.
